

Parental Advisory Council

Parents can become very active in our school through the Parental Advisory Council. Meetings are held once a month. Notice of meetings can be found in the monthly school newsletter. Through fundraising efforts and the Scholastic Book Fair, the Council supports students with funds for projects and special activities. All families are invited to be active participants at our school.

